

Saturday 2nd November 2019

A Unique Off-Road Experience Combining the History & Beauty of the Canterbury High Country.

Situated in the Selwyn Plantation, approx 60k south west of Christchurch, the Bell Hill Challenge is a scenic 18k run or 12k walk taking in one of the regions most historic but hidden landmarks.

The 960m high Bell Hill, found just past Sheffield, offers views stretching for more than 30k in all directions and was one of the original landmarks used by early settlers blazing a trail from Canterbury over to the West Coast.

The Bell Hill Challenge starts and finishes at Belldoon Farm on Dalethorpe Road, near Sheffield. It takes in the Bell Hill Summit, before continuing on a loop around the back country above the Selwyn River. This area is usually closed to the public, so it's a great chance to experience one of Canterbury's hidden historic gems.

This is a unique running or walking experience, and great training for events like the Kepler Challenge and Coast to Coast, not to mention a great way to kick-start summer.
